And a huge thank you to...

Our friend, Emilee Lales. Today we celebrate her as she exits the group after 18 incredible years. Since she joined the group in 2008, she has served in leadership positions for countless years and built many of the structures and systems on which InVox still stands today. She has given us almost two decades of creativity, dedication, and community. We are so very grateful for her talent and friendship, and will miss her very much.

We will be making a huge deal of her tomorrow, as to not interrupt the amazing show she produced for all of you today.
